

I would like to discourage the FCC from displacing KLove with LPFM broadcasting. KLove is such an uplifting radio station in my community. Numerous listeners in this area tune in on a daily basis to receive encouraging words and songs from KLove. I believe that KLove is at the heart of public interest in that it promotes the word of God...and the music is AWESOME!